You can use the articles that you write to generate free traffic to your affiliate links so you generate more money online. You can do this by placing a link directly to your web page in your article, website, blog, etc..

Your articles can be created into a website. If you create a website that consists of informative articles on relevant topics that you can sell advertising on your website to related businesses. Create a website, blog, exc using your articles, you could also place Google Adsense ads on your web page and get paid each time a visitor clicks on your Google Adsense ads.

You could turn your informative articles into your own ebook, blogs, etc or you could even turn your articles into an email course for affiliate marketers who want to make money online.

Some internet marketers write informative articles on topics related to working from home or how to make money online. They then include a special affiliate link in their articles to the affiliate product that they are promoting. When a reader clicks on the link and purchases the product the author makes a commission from home.

When writing articles to make money, an important point to remember is that you will be more successful if your articles are informative and give the reader valuable information. It's important to build trust with the reader actually offer the reader something of value in the article.

If you can give the reader valuable information that is useful to them, then you will be building a trusting relationship with that reader. This way when you recommend a product or website, to your reader, they will be more likely to follow your advice when they see you have already given them something of value and you have already initiated a trusting relationship with them.

One other point to remember when writing articles is to keep them short. People are bombarded with information every day. Very very few visitors have the time or the interest in reading lengthy articles. Keep the article to 500 to 700 words, you will find your articles getting read and getting results.
