Speed Reading and Straight A's for the Entire Family

Imagine you are a parent of a 9 year old girl, a 13 year old boy, and a 19 year old. You know that their futures depend upon their ability to read and assimilate information, putting it into memory and into use. What in the world are you going to do now?

We'll teach them, for you, to double, and even triple their reading speed, improve their test-taking ability, their memory and recall and develop many other success skills and much more. Live courses for all three kids could cost upwards from $500, some courses are $675 per person. But, what we have found is that when the students WANT to learn, they can learn by themselves, from the right materials unassisted. If your children want more free time, less study time, and better grades all at once - we've got it -- it's the COMPLETE SPEED READING COURSE:

But, what we have found is that when the students WANT to learn, they can learn by themselves, from the right materials unassisted. If your children want more free time, less study time, and better grades all at once - we've found it -- it's a COMPLETE SPEED READING COURSE:

For pre-teens, there is a Children's course called - If You Can Read This, You Can Read Faster! For teens and adults we have - Speed Reading in Only One Hour! And for the college-university bound student - Be Dynamic Through Speed Reading. And the courses come with audio support for comprehension, reading speed, test taking skills and more. And a computer software program for reading faster online.

If you need to improve your reading skills, and achieve greater successes in business and in life, you can rely on the courses from Speedread America, America's oldest and finest educational resource for helping students, business people, and adults to achieve their goals and have a better life.

Complete Speed Reading is one of the more amazing programs developed by Dr. Jay Polmar, the master of training the human mind for educational and motivational successes. He's the founder of speedread.org and his complete speed reading programs can be found at www.speedreadcomplete.com

You can be a top performer in University and in the Corporate America.
