

Published based on Put This Free Online Shopping Application Through Its Paces

Put This Free Online Shopping Application Through Its Paces

There is now a free Windows application that lets anyone find the best deals online for virtually any product. One Co-Founder of the company, stated that the mission was "to raise the quality of life for millions of people by giving away a free applications for every PC in the world." Currently in the third year of operation and going strong, the application not only offers you a free download, but an income opportunity, as well.

How the free application Works

Just download the app from a distributor's web site and install the program on your computer. Remember this is a Windows program, so it will not work on Macs unless you have Intel. Use any search engine to locate any product you need. The application will appear and give you trimmed down, relevant results and best prices for the product you are looking for.

Search Engines Are In Business To Make Money

The software program shows you where to find the absolute lowest priced best deals anywhere online. Often search engines sell their top spaces to major players in business. They appear near the top of the results page and might not really be the best deal on what you are shopping for. This software makes sure that your results are not skewed by the search engine's need to turn a profit.

Get the free application

You need the application to sort through the morass of clutter that comes along with your search results. The software identifies actual items and prices that are really the best priced deals, not just the deals that help the search engine make money.

Generate Income

Making money with this application is very simple. Just give the software away. Each time someone you personally gave the software to and clicks on certain product, you get paid. The more people you share the software with, the greater your income will be.

A distribution license is required in order to legally distribute the software. The license is a one-time fee of $199. With this you get three web sites, a marketing system, graphics, pre-written email campaigns and more. To remain active, a small $29 fee is charged to your account every month. You must remain active to collect commission and bonuses.

The Compensation Plan

Earn 50% of generated revenue whenever anyone you gave the software to uses it to shop and compare prices. If you have four distributors personally sponsored by you or if you enroll two distributors in the initial 72 hours of your business, you are eligible to receive 20% commission for all of the clicks your downline makes.

Each time you enroll two new distributors, you earn yourself a $100 bonus! This happens each and every time you enroll two distributors. There are no time limits or maximum number of downline members. As you build both legs of your team, you will be eligible for the Dual Team Infinity Pay, as well.

Save money on all of your online purchases with . You can get started finding the real deals when you download this free online shopping application. If you are not sure how to do this, contact the distributor who pointed you to this article.

The author provides a link to this revolutionary software in the box below

When you are tired of spending time and effort looking for the top discounts and deals on the Internet, a free application can make it easy to shop. You can download shopping app feature in minutes and save money on all your purchases.

You can also find this article published on Put This Free Online Shopping Application Through Its Paces, and on the tag pages deals, ECommerce, online business, price comparison, save money, shopping, shopping application, shopping software.