DKNY Perfumes - On With The Times

With its first perfume released in 1992, Donna Karan New York has created one of the most alluring fragrances in the market today - DKNY Perfumes. From the Donna Karan beginnings, the brand has created a global market that will cater to the elite who never settles for anything less but the best. This has caught the eye of the luxury good conglomerate, LVMH and adopted the House of DKNY as its own.

In association with the biggest name in perfumery such as Alberto Morillas, Harry Fremont, Yann Vasnier, Rodrigo Flores-Roux, Jean-Marc Chaillan, and IFF among others. Some of them have also worked for the biggest names in the perfume industry like Ghost perfumes.

One of the more famous DKNY perfume collection is the DKNY Energy for Women. Designed by Calice Becker, this floral fruity mix smells like the fresh city after rain. It has light and spicy notes with a fruity tinge. Energetic and fresh, this perfume is coupled with the same male fun and sportiness with the DKNY Energy for Men.

1996 brought us Chaos - the fragrance. DKNY perfumes have definitely a way to get into our hearts and this is one of those fragrances that can captivate you with its coriander and chamomile on top. Middle notes include cinnamon, saffron and carnation; while at the base is sandalwood and musk. It gives you a spicy tinge yet it is toned down with the chamomile and sandalwood. If you like a smell that is mysterious and twisted differently, getting this DKNY perfume is a sure must.

One that comes in red color is the Ripe Raspberry fragrance which opens with juicy raspberry and lime with apple. Peony and magnolia takes it heart and ends with coke as its base.

One of the many DKNY perfume to look out for in 2010 is the DKNY Fresh Blossom Art Limited Edition. Pushing the boundaries of usual sweetness, this DKNY perfume has playful notes of grapefruit, black currant, peach zest and floral accords. Getting one of this Limited Edition is a sure way to add color and style to your DKNY perfume collection.
