Great Free Gadgets With Freebiejeebies

Everyone who uses the internet will have at some time seen the advertisements for a free iphone or the latest must have games console.

A free iphone or free games console, we have all seen then and most of us will just close the advert and ignore it. But ask yourself this could they really give away such great expensive gadgets?

Having thought about these free gifts offered, I started to look around and came across freebiejeebies who seemed to have a lot of members who have claimed not just free iphones but many great gadgets like laptops and ipods.

Running since 2007 they have given away little over one million pounds worth of free goods to their members. This is an amazing amount of free gifts and it is no wonder they are the UK's number one freebie giveaway website.

Support and help comes from Richard and Alex who both own Freebiejeebies, keeping there members very happy with support not only from their website but also from a website called eXceem. They both give great support to members and it offers that personal touch.

When joining Freebiejeebies you are asked to provide your name and address and a valid email address, you must provide genuine details if you wish to claim you free gift.

The requirements to claim a free gift start with you having to choose one of the offers displayed, by completing one of the offers you are then qualified to carry on and claim your free gift. Please ensure you read the offer requirements carefully.

The country you live in will effect which offers are shown for you to complete, but they have made sure that each country who are allowed to join have a free offer which you can complete. Free offers are the best option as they cost the members nothing to complete.

How long it takes to claim your free gift really depends on you. The time for each person to claim their free gift varies from person to person but most people should be qualified within 8 weeks. 8 weeks may seem long but when you are getting a free gift who cares?

When your gift is shipped out, there will be no charge to you at all. All shipping costs are covered no matter where you live.

You will never have spam sent from Freebiejeebies neither will they ever sell your personal details.

Want to get started with freebiejeebies, then visit www.freebiejeebies.co and start claiming your own free macbook or choose from any of the free gifts offered.
