You could say my friends had been pretty much all spoon fed, and did not understand very much of any with the troubles I faced in my life. They had nice families, food on the table each night, and money to go to school.

An individual driven to succeed must never be labeled in the boat of "some loser who didn't go to school." No, I was determined to make money online as a teenager, and I knew I would. Matter of truth, if you plan your moves smartly, you will need a university degree for absolutely nothing in living. If there can be a will, there is really a way for making great money (even for a teenager).

What started with just the determination and belief I had in myself turned into the launch pad for all my dreams to come true. I walked the halls of my high school just about every day with a major secret on my shoulders. My secret job. My secret dreams to grow to be the Champion I promised someone I would develop into. This job was going to be the financial freedom I constantly needed for my family. It would be the exit path to becoming the Hero I always desired to be.

With the proper guidance from a successful GDI team, it was only a matter of time before my name was on the leaderboard. I never doubted myself, although there were many struggles along the way. What it came down to, was my determination to succeed and the desire to change my life forever.

I believe I have not genuinely succeeded unless I support others succeed as well. Fortunately, my line of work spells this out exactly as I've said it you. As an affiliate marketer, I make much more money when my group does.

GDI has brought me to great success in my life. But it was faith that really pulled me through. I count my blessings always, and thank the Exalted one for guiding me to the video that changed my life forever. Thank you for reading.
