Kooday - An Expert Review

Kooday is the latest search engine to break into the internet market. It is a multi-language library of every word and phrase known to mankind. Not only can you search just like you would with Google, Yahoo or the many other options internet surfers have, but as a member you can earn profits. Here is my honest review.

In today's fast changing world of the internet one thing has stayed constant. The search engine market has been dominated by a few such as Google, Yahoo, Bing and a few other hybrids. They earn their massive amounts of income by charging for advertising.

If you have every used pay-per clicks, Google AdWords, banner advertising or any other form of pay for internet advertising, you know it comes at a pretty high cost.

This New Search Engine offering it's members a cash pay out that means, every time anyone uses your Keyword, you get paid.

It looks really simple. But How you may possibly wonder.

When somebody buys your keyword they always have to pay 15% more than the price you covered the keyword. Keyword purchases start from 10 cents. This is just one of the benefits that Kooday offers.

What is the minimum investment? The minimum investment is only 5 dollars. PayPal can be used to deposit the money.

Here are five reasons for using Kooday rather than any other search engine:

1. Do other search engines allows you to actually own keywords? No they don't but this new search engine does. Ownership of keywords make money in your account.
2. When you advertise with other companies do they allow payment after they see results? No they don't but Kooday does.
3. Do other search engines pay a residual income to it's members? Most do not, but this one does.
4. Tell others about this and receive commissions. When keywords are purchased or websites linked you got paid. Imagine the possibilities how man words are out there?
5. Owners of popular keywords are paid a bonus. When you think of an excellent keywords ensure you own it.
