Law Of Attraction Exposed Through "Think And Grow Rich"

Anyone who had taken a voyage into the world of the law of attraction would have heard of the name of Napoleon Hills. This is one of the names that stand strong among several others as far as the promotion of the idea of this law is concerned. Some people even dubbed him the apostle of the law of attraction (unconfirmed).

Napoleon Hills was the author of the book titled 'the law of success' this book was released in 1928 and it became one of the best books that had ever been written about the law of attraction. The book is rather large in volume. It comprises of up to sixteen different lessons on how to make use of the law of attraction in a bid to become successful.

There was some form of modification in the book later. It was later modified into a smaller book and it came with the title "think and grow rich" this modification was done in 1937. The modified version was actually referred to as one of the greatest books that had ever been released on the law of attraction.

Quite a lot of the book was sold. In fact, up to sixty million copies went off the market within a very short period of time. This is one of the names that stand strong among several others. This meant that sixty million individuals became further educated about the ideas of the New thought movement on the law of attraction.

This situation was said not have become acceptable to some people. They never loved the idea of the information in the book getting to the hands of the public. This was because the information that the book contains was referred to as the revealed secrets of the elite class. According to an unconfirmed rumor, Henry Ford was said to have been one of those who strongly opposed the publishing of the book.
