Official Massive Passive Profits Review

Lee McIntyre's latest product, Standing Start Profits is a lot more than a membership website. It has a Mentoring Forum full of generous members, much more than willing to help with your problems and share their own experiences. After introducing your self on the forum you're inundated with very warm, welcoming messages from the members. Even Lee (as busy as he is) finds the time to post and welcome each and every new member.

It does not matter to them that you are new and just starting out trying to make cash via the web, they actively encourage inexperienced members to get involved and they help and advise accordingly. You do not need to feel embarrassed or silly when posting a question or you're searching for the answer to a issue because the specialists and experienced members have been there and carried out that, so they know exactly how it feels to be starting out and searching for the answer to a issue. They'll answer questions and advise on most web based issues. You truly are made to really feel that you are a component of the Standing Start Profits "family".

Among the topics covered in Standing Begin Profits are:

- How to build a super responsive list of 1,200+ hungry prospects in just 30 days - Forget the hot trends, and the hype. In the event you want to build a list then quick product creation is where it's at. Let Lee show you how you can build one of your own the correct way in my explosive videos.

- How to produce a massive pre launch feeding frenzy that will nibble at your competition- Lee is going to show you how to take a product into pre launch and have people salivating all over it. They're going to be drooling over your product. Money in hand.

- How to bring your JV partners to their knees as they beg you to answer YOUR emails- Lee laughs when he sees how most individuals approach JV requests. But the sad factor is it's really not funny. Ha, but nobody's going to be laughing at you!
