The Best iPhone 4 Cases Ever

Have you been looking for iPhone cases, but have not find any that you like? Well if you're still looking for iPhone cases, then in this article you will be guided to seven of the most budget friendly, stylish, and protective iPhone cases out there.

1. iPhone WaterField Smart case

This iPhone case is priced between $35-$39. It is available in black, blue, brown, green, red, and silver. It's durability depends on how well it is taken care of by the owner, however it provides maximum protection with numerous layouts of material. The advantages to this iPhone case are that it comes in three varieties; you can buy the simple case, one that comes with flaps that attach it with either a shoulder strap, or one that can be attached to a belt clip. A disadvantage could be that since it is a pouch type of case, you won't always have the screen available for you to see quickly.

2. iPhone Suede Jacket case

This iPhone case is priced at $9. It is available only in black. Although this case is made out of very thin textile material it provides excellent protection. It is also very easy to clean; you can wash it by hand with water, scrub a little, and then let it dry, and it will be as good as new. The advantages to this case are that it provides the maximum amount of protection to your screen, and all of the iPhone connectors. This is a pouch like iPhone case. It is also orientated vertically, and you will be able to access the headphones jack opening easily.

3. iPhone Designio Open Sleeve case

This iPhone case is priced at $29.95. It is available in blue, orange, white, green, black, pink, and red. It is made out of leather, and it provides protection to the whole iPhone, yet it has openings in all the right places. You will have access to all of the jacks, controls, and even to the screen at all times. The advantages to this iPhone case are, that you have Velcro closings which will prevent the case from falling open easily at any time, and that you have a belt clip and cord ring as well.

4. iPhone Designio Slim case This iPhone case is priced at $29.95. It is available in white, gray, black, and pink. It is made of very thin leather material, thus providing protection to your iPhone in all the right places. You will never have to remove the iPhone from its case to be able to use any of the controls, jacks, screen, camera, or dock connector. You should however purchase a screen film protector to provide the maximum amount of protection to your iPhone screen. This case is orientated vertically, it's a pouch type case, and it has a detachable belt clip as well.

5. iPhone Armor case

This iPhone case is priced at $27.95. It is available only in metallic silver, and black. This is one of the most stylish iPhone cases out there. You will have maximum protection as it is made from lightweight aluminum, while also enjoying the not-bulkiness. The case has a padded interior, and you will also have access to all of the jacks and controls, even the camera. With this case your are sure to get lots of compliments and looks from everyone. You are provided an optional plexiglass window that will protect your iPhone screen; make sure to use it! A removable belt clip is also included.

6. iPhone OtterBox case

This iPhone case is priced at $49.95. It is available only in black, and black with yellow. This iPhone case will allow you to use your iPhone without ever having to remove it from its case, as it will give you access to everything on your iPhone, even the camera. You will have the maximum amount of protection to all parts of your iPhone, including the screen. The material is a skin-like material that will allow you to have a perfect grip on your phone at all times, and it is also water resistant. You will receive a separate holster with a belt clip when you order this iPhone case.
