Silver Jewelry Accessorizing

A fantastic way to polish up any outfit is by adding a few pieces of silver jewelry. Your look will be finished when you put on some great pieces like a bracelet, earrings, or a necklace. It's these added items that really draw attention to you and your personal style. Silver is a fancy yet modest touch to any look you are creating.

[!:<http://www.webmarksolutions.com/wp-content/uploads/2011/03/IgorPauer6.jpg>] No matter where you are going or how you need to dress, the added touches to your ensemble are very important. In an upscale setting like the prom or a wedding, using silver pieces set with rhinestones or gemstones is a fantastic choice. The silver really sets off the sparkle of a diamond or other light colored stone. Even the queen of England has a silver tiara!

When dressing in a traditional and laid back manner, such as donning jeans and a tank top, add some fun hoop earrings. You don't have to always go with the round hoop either, try a fun geometrical shape like square or diamond. Toss in some chunky wrist bangles and you have instantly polished up the most casual of outfits. Want to make it even more dressy? Change into a fun platform shoe or kitten heel, clip in a sassy silver comb in your hair and you are ready for a fun night out!

Simply change your jewelry after work and you can change your look in under five minutes! Take off your muted pieces that are appropriate for the office and slip on a pair of eye catching earrings, add a shiny bracelet or two or three, and open up your blouse to reveal a long pendant.

Don't underestimate the power of a necklace when choosing your accessories. Necklaces are a wonderful option for men and women alike. Go with a longer length to make a fun statement. For even more fun, add several necklaces of different lengths for a stacked up look. Men can go with the classic herringbone chain in various lengths and widths. Shorter and thinner is best for office wear, whereas longer and thicker is more appropriate for the casual look.

If you are shopping for a special person in your life, consider something traditional like a silver ring. Need something that's more fun? Dangling earrings, hoops, studs, or cuff bracelets are an excellent choice. For something more traditional you can't go wrong with an elegant watch or brooch. Select a necklace that demonstrates that person's personal style.

Now you can see that silver jewelry makes the perfect accessory for any occasion. It is perfect for updating your wardrobe or instantly transforming your look. It also makes a classic and timeless gift that anyone is sure to love.
