While Google AdSense is a very highly regarded advertising program, it is still very popular among black hat marketers and ne'er do wells. This is why there are a lot of AdSense accounts being banned (which is a very serious problem). This is why you need to be very careful when you are dealing with your AdSense ads and you need to make sure that you do not generate any fake clicks. In addition to that, you need to make sure that your website does not contain any illegal or prohibited content because Google does not want its ads to appear on those kinds of pages. Also, don't make any manual changes to your AdSense code or try to cloak your links, because this also not allowed by Google. Make sure you read all of the rules and regulations before you join the program so that you can be sure of the steps that you take.

Your Google AdSense ads must be able to be seen compared to the rest of the elements on your page and that's the only way you're going to get lots of clicks. You need to make sure that your ads will be able to be seen by anyone, no matter what screen resolution they use.

Blending your ads is important, but it's also important to focus on making your ads work more effectively. The people who succeed with AdSense are those who make ads that can not only be seen, but that also entice people to take a closer look.
