

Published based on Revolution In Malaysia By Malaysia Famous Politicians

Revolution In Malaysia By Malaysia Famous Politicians

In order to run a country, there are such a lot of different things that have to be thought-about and one such significant factor is the politics. There have been so many Popular politicians Malaysia that haven't only changed the appearance and situation of that nation but additionally brought some improvement in the life style of the people. Malaysia is also alleged to be a slave country many few years back and got freedom and since then, the politicians started showing their roles. In the independent Malaysia, there have been so many Popular politicians Malaysia but among them, one such name who've been famous for the very long time is the Mahatir Bin Mohamad.

So far as this Politician Malaysia is concerned, he was born on 10th of July 1925. There have been so many prime ministers in this nation and among them; he has been the fourth prime minister of the Independent Malaysia. He is also supposed to be the Politician Malaysia who has been on the post of prime minister for the maximum duration of 22 years. He took the charge of prime minister in the yr 1981 after which finally he gave up his position in the year 2003.

It is worth to be noticed that this Well-liked politicians Malaysia has not only been academically and politically good but has also been an excellent doctor and served for their nation for more years. He was the first doctor of his province. Before getting entered into the politics, he has been in so many government hospitals and also he practiced by his own. However, he has been successful only in the Malaysia medical college. However, his political career started right after the independence of the Malaysia in the yr 1959 when he appointed as an active member of UMNO. This Politician Malaysia was also the chairman of the local political party in the Kedah.

Another Popular politicians Malaysia is the Karpal Singh. Being born in a Punjabi NRI family in the year 1940 on 28th of June. He has been in so many various professions inclusive of the politics. However, he didn't stepped into the politics directly and had been associated with the law and order of Malaysia and practiced as a successful lawyer. Within the year 1978, he was elected for the parliament for the first time and then he served over there for 20 years and finally gave up within the yr 1999. This Politician Malaysia has also been the active Member of Parliament in Malaysia since 2004.

Raja Nong Abidin was also one of the Popular politicians Malaysia. He was born within the yr 1953 on 14th of February and since then, he started his journey in which so many various stoppages came in the form of their profession. At present he's a cabinet minister in Malaysia and aside from this, he is also an active member of UMNO. In the yr 2008 in the month of April, he entered into the Dewan Negara. This Politician Malaysia has also been associated with so many schools in Malaysia and taught them the best way of living.

Dr. Chua Soi Lek also served as the health minister of Malaysia for a period of four years i.e. from 2004 to 2008. He was serving as a medical officer at Batu Pahat hospital in 1977 when he laid foundation of his own clinic. After operating that clinic for 12 years he sold it to become a full fledged politician and member of MCA.

You can also find this article published on Revolution In Malaysia By Malaysia Famous Politicians, and on the tag pages E-Learning, economics, education, famous people, internet and computer, malaysia politicians, management, politics, Social Issues, technology.