Ardyss International - The Company Overview

Ardyss International was started in 1989 in Mexico. It became a network marketing company in May 2007, and since then, Ardyss offers seen tremendous growth with the sale of several of its products, one being the Ardyss Body Magic reshaping garment.

The Ardyss Body Magic re-shaping garment was designed through an orthopedic surgeon. It's many health benefits for women. It is an improved as well as transformed corset, which was used in earlier times to reduce the actual waist and form the female figure.

This product is very effective in reshaping the body by reducing up to three dress sizes while accelerating the entire process of weight loss. The Ardyss Body Magic does what is known as "Lipo Transportation," meaning it takes a woman's fatty tissue and moves it from where it is in order to where it needs to be in her body. You will find only two places a woman needs fat tissue and those are the breasts and bottom.

The Body Magic offers every woman the remarkable opportunity to look and feel better about her body. This garment is ideal for the times women want to fit into that "special" dress that no longer appears special when they put it on due to the extra weight. It will help any woman have the perfect shape she has always desired. Your body Magic is the ideal complement for entire body reshaping. It is unique since it can immediately reduce a woman 2 to 3 dress sizes within minutes due to the fat redistribution process.

This outfit is also ideal for taking care of the female skeletal system as it favors correct position of the spinal column. Not only does it make a woman look slimmer, her body will acquire a good esthetic and female form.

The Ardyss Body Magic was originally created to help overweight ladies to recover their figure, shaping their body whilst in the weight loss process. Size reduction, body reshaping and a correct position will make anyone look and feel great.

The reshaping garment also gives the appearance of a breasts lift. It reduces the actual waist, lifts and rounds a woman's buttocks and positions all of them in their correct anatomical place for a proper function and prevents sagging. This dynamic body reshapener also gets rid of love handles, back and underarm fat, giving the smoother, more womanly figure.

The Ardyss Body Magic is designed to exert pressure on the abdomen, generating a safety that prevents body fat accumulation in the stomach walls. It provides the appearance of an instant tummy tuck!

When most think of "corsets," they think of something restricted and uncomfortable. Nevertheless, this body reshapener gives the incredible transforming outcomes of a corset without the soreness. Because it favors proper posture and improves blood circulation, it improves the results of physical activity. Therefore, it is as comfortable and safe to work out in as a sports bra.

The actual reshaping results obtained with the Body Magic can be likened to people of liposculpture but with no pain of surgery. Because of the exerted pressure your body undergoes along with wear of the garment, the fat redistribution helps to firm up the fatty areas of the back, abdomen, bottom and thighs.

Wearing the garment, a woman will find that she is actually increasing the performance of the internal organs located in the stomach cavity. This is because they are placed where they're supposed to go in your body and they recover misplaced pressure improving their own function.

Ardyss International is an old company that provides a new opportunity. Ardyss had been started in Mexico within 1989 by the Diaz de Leon Loved ones. In May of 2007, Ardyss International relocated their corporate head office to Las Vegas, The state of Nevada and changed from the direct sales model to some network marketing business model.

This transformation opened the door with regard to thousands of people to be a part of a life-changing network marketing opportunity and presents the opportunity for them to build a successful home-based business.

Today, Ardyss will business in the United States, Canada, Dominican Republic, Venezuela, Puerto Rico and South America with more than 40 distribution centers worldwide. Ardyss is a leader in the Overall health Industry with their continuing product research as well as development staff of engineers and physicians. Ardyss has combined the very best of industries: Nutrition, Skin Care and Reshaping.

The actual Ardyss nutritional products have been developed with the health-conscious consumer in mind. Ardyss helps people internally with excellent nutritional products, one of them being a beverage the Ardyss Le'Vive juice. It has the world's top 5 antioxidant-producing "super fruits" concentrated in one bottle: Pomegranate, The exotic goji, Acai Berry, which is the exact same berry that Oprah has flown in through Brazil, Noni, and Mangosteen.

The actual Ardyss Skin Care and Aesthetic lines are quite impressive, as well. The same company that manufactures Estee Lauder additionally created the skin care collection that Ardyss offers. As well as, the makers of Macintosh Cosmetics produce ardyss scam line of makeup. Therefore, a consumer can be sure they are still getting a high-quality product even if they aren't familiar with the actual Ardyss name, yet.

The Ardyss Reshaping line was created by an orthopedic doctor, so they have great health benefits, as well. Ardyss offers garments for both women and men.

For women, Ardyss has a complete line of body re-shaping garments that help recover the shape of the body. What these clothes do is called "Lipo Transport." That means this moves the fat in the body from where it is to the places it is supposed to be. On a woman's body, there are just two places where fat tissue is necessary: the breasts and buttocks.

The Ardyss Body Miracle, their flagship re-shaping garment, flattens the tummy, elevates the breasts, reshapes the legs, lifts and reshapes the actual buttocks, straightens the back and pulls the shoulders to correct posture, giving a woman the shape and posture she had in her younger years. This garment will allow women to decrease 2 to 3 dress sizes in minutes.

If a person wishes to take advantage of the actual network marketing side of Ardyss International, they may join one of three ways. Start-up expenses with Ardyss range from the $30 Membership to a $250 Power Pack association. The 3 ways to enroll is going to be plus tax and shipping costs of new distributor kits.

There are many Ardyss distributors earning significant incomes within the first couple of to six months associated with starting their Ardyss business, putting them on pace to earn well over six-figures annually in their first year of business. That is highly uncommon in network marketing for your level of income to be arrived at so quickly, but it's happening everyday in Ardyss International.

Ardyss International markets about 30 various reshaping products for both men and women. I will be analyzing the two products that tend to be geared towards servicing the needs of the expecting mother. This market segment offers special needs because of the tremendous changes that a woman goes through especially during and following the pregnancy. A woman's body during the pregnancy experiences a lot of different changes. Her weight will increase to accommodate the growing fetus; therefore, she will have additional pressure on the structure of your body.

The maternity girdle by Ardyss International is designed to support the fat of the fetus in the spinal column and helps stability the weight of the entire body. The wearing of the garment also keeps her vital organs in their respective places. Her derriere may have an enhanced feature due the natural as well as effective way that Lipo-transportation moves her fatty tissue for the rear. If this will as it advertise, then this product will be excellent to wear during a female's pregnancy. The needs after pregnancy are different simply because many of the organs are displaced.

The average woman is always in a hurry to obtain her body back to where it was before her pregnancy. The bundle of joy is truly appreciated as well as loved, but looking into the mirror as well as seeing her prior body is even better. The following product, postpartum girdle, in Ardyss International's arsenal that is designed to aid in getting a woman pre-pregnancy body back as soon as possible. The actual postpartum girdle helps in repositioning her displaced organs to their location and helps a woman's body recover faster. It also redistributes her fat thereby helping the abdomen and back muscle tissue. This allows a woman to become fully mobile in caring for her child.

The maternity panty girdle and the postpartum girdle are both excellent products and are certainly worth the extra effort and expense. The actual faster a woman rebounds after pregnancy the better. These products are great as a stand alone but with the proper diet and exercise while talking to your doctor, better and faster results will be achieved. even better and faster results.

Ardyss Worldwide has been a successful organization pretty much since it's start in Mexico in 1989.They're currently positioned across North America, and U.K. internationally and continue to grow. Promoting special body garments, health product, as well as skin care. One of best lines involves entire body reshaping.

The Ardyss nutritional products have been developed with the health-conscious consumer in your mind. Ardyss helps people in house with great dietary products, one of them being a beverage the Ardyss Le'Vive juice. It has the world's top 5 antioxidant-producing "super fruits" concentrated in one bottle: Pomegranate, Goji, Acai Berry, which is the same fruit that Oprah offers flown in from Brazil, Noni, and Mangosteen.

The Ardyss Skin Care and Cosmetic line is quite impressive, too. The same company that manufactures Estee Lauder also created the skin care line that Ardyss offers. And, the manufacturers of MAC Cosmetics produce Ardyss' line of makeup. Therefore, a consumer can be certain they are still getting a high-quality product even if they are not familiar with the Ardyss.

The Ardyss Reshaping line carries a complete collection of entire body reshaping garments that are in demand among women 30 years up. Ardyss re-shaping garments do what is known as "Lipo Transportation" which means fatty tissue in wrong locations are shaped and directed to where they are supposed to be.

Ardyss reshaping garments flatten the abdominal area, raise the breasts and provide support and shape to the buttocks. All clothes are designed by orthopaedic surgeons in the Ardyss research as well as development team, these undergarments also provide great back support to motivate proper posture. One can go a size or two reduce while wearing an Ardyss reshaping body garment.

Ardyss international has got a low cost purchase in,this makes it easy for people to join.You can easily earn good money with this particular company.

The single key to any business is the advertising side of it and it is impossible to make anything if you can not promoting your company.I have seen great items which failed on the market because of leak of promotion.

Ardyss International has been around for quite a while. Conceived by the Diaz de Leon clan associated with Mexico in 1989, Ardyss built a business in manufacturing and selling women's inner body garments. Currently Ardyss has business operations ongoing all over the United States and North america, and in some regions of South America. It has more than 40 distribution facilities all over the world and Ardyss Worldwide is listed among the top 20 fastest growing companies there are operating to date.

In the spring associated with 2007, Ardyss International achieved considerable expansion by moving its primary headquarters to Las Vegas, Nevada. In line with its transfer was Ardyss' change from a simple direct selling business structure to a wider network marketing business model.

This change presented a promising chance to thousands of people seeking to develop a solid home-based career. Ardyss opened its doors by setting up a successful networking business with individuals not having to take on regular nine-to-five work schedules. For those seeking the ground-floor opportunity, Ardyss Worldwide has reliable business architecture - it features a solid foundation to speak of, the compensation plan is excellent, its leadership is quite strong, and the products are phenomenal. Ardyss has developed as well as combined the best of sectors into its 3 distinct but complementary product lines: Body Re-shaping, Nutrition and Skin Care.

The Ardyss Reshaping collection carries a complete collection of body reshaping garments that are in demand amongst women 30 years up. Ardyss reshaping garments do what is called "Lipo Transportation" which means fatty tissues in incorrect places are formed and directed to exactly where they are supposed to be. You will find only two locations in a woman's body where a healthy quantity of fat is absolutely encouraged - the breast and the buttocks. Ardyss re-shaping garments flatten the stomach area, lift the breasts and supply support and shape to the buttocks. Just about all garments are designed through orthopaedic surgeons in the Ardyss research and development team, this isn't simply about re-shaping, these undergarments also provide great back assistance to encourage correct posture. One can go a size or even two lower with an Ardyss reshapingbody garment.

And as the reshaping garments perform the aesthetic portion of the job, Ardyss nutrition products perform the in-depth job of promoting general body wellness. The Ardyss Le'Vive Juice is a fruit-based beverage that contains five of the greatest anti-oxidants coming from the Acai Berry, Goji, Pomegranate, Mangosteen and the Noni. The majority of multi-level network companies sell these super fruit drinks separately and it is only Le'Vive which has all these combined in one beverage.

Lastly, the Ardyss Skin Care and Cosmetic Lines ought to be a very good product line to promote. There's no need to state much about the products except that they are all produced by two same firms that manufacture MAC cosmetics and the Estee Lauder skin care line. Customers are assured that they're getting high-quality products despite a still unfamiliar name brand.

Ardyss distributors are usually able to earn amazing income within the very first six months of starting their Ardyss business. As they sustain this, they keep at pace with the possibility of earning a six-figure income early into their first year stint using the company. Not many network marketing companies are able to present this opportunity, but this isn't uncommon at Ardyss International. And this can be attributed to a solid Ardyss compensation plan which allows its agents or distributors to immediately earn back their capital expense and begin to make profit subsequently.

What sets Ardyss International apart from the variety of newly-emerging Health and Wellness companies?

We wanted to learn how Ardyss differs from its competitors, such as Xango and Monavie.

One of Ardyss International's most interesting products may be a beverage which offers the twist on popular "super-fruit" drinks. Rather than providing individual lines of Acai, Noni, and Mangosteen juices, Ardyss has blended all of them into together right into a single product: Le'Vive.

Ardyss has a line of skin care products which sets it apart from competitors for example Mary Kay and Mona Vie. This is because these products are made by the same company that manufactures Estee Lauder's products, and so their high quality is guaranteed.

Ardyss International sells woman's "body reshaping garments," the most prominent of which is known as Ardyss Body Magic. The product improves a woman's determine with "Lipo Transportation" technology, which moves body fat through regions where is it undesirable to places where it serves to compliment a woman's figure.

Though I felt a little out of my element while researching this company, I know that Ardyss's products would be significantly valued by my many of my friends and family. While I feel that diet and exercise are integral to health and wellness, many people out there just do not have the motivation or resources to eat right and visit the gym regularly. On their behalf, these products can provide fitness and improved body image.

Ardyss International is available in an over soaked market. The best way for it to expand would be for this to set itself even more apart from similar companies. Therefore, I would advise any prospective distributor for this company to look into unique marketing methods and novel products. Their all-in-one super fruit drink and jello mold-like "body re-shaping garment" are steps in the right direction, and Ardyss ought to continue to boldly improvement along this route.

To merely compete with well-versed companies in the Overall health market, Ardyss must be additional set apart from similar businesses. To attain the perfect benefits from the Ardyss International venture, entrepreneurs must begin to sharply define who their prospects are, and must create truly exceptional marketing strategies for this demographic.

Ardyss International is actually a rather prolific company that provides an incredible product and service. Recently, there has been a heightened awareness of what health and wellness programs and providers are able to provide consumers that has greatly increased the visibility and stance of this company overall. As such, a brief Ardyss International review has been searched for by many to ascertain if this is the right company for them for all of their health and wellness requirements.

Ardyss International was started in 1989 in Mexico by the Diaz de Leon loved ones that has a history and flutter associated with successful organizations and corporations throughout the nation and Latin America. As this company offers expanded and developed to new heights of fame and appeal, they have relocated their corporate workplaces to Las Vegas to be better positioned to dominate as much of the American market as possible. With such a move, this should prove to be an incredible option overall.

In this phase of relocation, the Ardyss International Corporation shifted toward much more of a holistic stance associated with how they operate and their overall foundational business model has changed in the process. Basically, what was when a direct sales model of conducting business is not a network tagging mentality. Thus, they're helping individuals turn out to be incredibly successful in selling their products in services.

An Ardyss International review uncovers that they have actually expanded a great deal over the past few years. They are actually now in over six various countries which also offers over 40 different distribution systems that allows for an incredible attractiveness overall. This has actually made it an incredibly popular and far reaching overall health company which has been extremely robust and effective overall.

There are several different categories of employment in this organization which allows to have an amazing appeal of diversity in product offering as well. Some of the most essential employees in this company are doctors as well as engineers which offer up some incredible products and services which are always being launched in a new fashion overall. Therefore, there is always something new as well as fresh within this product offering.

Ardyss International offers up an incredible line of health and wellness products that are perfect for everyone. One of their most popular wellness choices is actually a juice that is one of the top anti-oxidant juices on the market today. People often purchase this particular juice in order to provide for healthier immune system and flush their methods from toxins.

Ardyss Worldwide has great products targeting women who are curious about looking and feeling healthier through the use of the under-garments and nutritional line. But this is not going to be your typical Ardyss review talking about set up product works. I wish to offer you real experience to how Ardyss distributors are building their own business and some mistakes they might be making.

Ardyss International distributes their products via a business model called network marketing. This allows every-day women to start up their own 'franchise' using the company and get paid to connect the customer with the product and build the team of distributors to do the same.

Sounds easy enough right? You may have 10, 20, as well as 30 friends that might be interested in purchasing the products and perhaps a handful who might be interested in building the business; which is great. But then you HAVE to ask the query, then what?!

The most successful Ardyss distributors understand that if they are going to build a successful business, they have to find a way to develop a steady stream of new customers and prospects.

Therefore once you hit the bottom of your names list, what you need are real Advertising strategies to learn how to keep growing and expand the Ardyss business. I do not say this just from theory. I have constructed a network marketing business using the traditional methods that I was taught; building a titles list, approaching everyone I know etc...

But when I was able to go full time in my company I realized I'd made some Fatal Mistakes that avoided me from experienceing this level of success I was after. What I did not have was real marketing strategies where I possibly could MARKET my business past my names checklist. And this applies for those network marketing businesses company, even for Ardyss International. Gone are the days of chasing friends and hassling prospects!

If you are serious about creating a thriving Ardyss business, learn to integrate new ways of attract people who are searching for what you have to offer.
