Wedding Cakes: Are You The Classic Bride or The Diva Bride?

Which Bride are you currently? Selecting a wedding cake depends upon a lot more than the flavors you like. It comes down to personality and who you genuinely are.

The CLASSIC Bride

The classic bride is all about standard bridal style. She is all about basic elegance. If this is you, then you are able to emulate that classic bridal style on your classic wedding cake.

Flower Petals on the Cake; consider a stunning white on white cake with frothy white icing and piles of stunning rosebuds and petals. Develop a romantic look about the cake by scattering white and pink rose petals more than an organza tablecloth. A beautiful silver plated cake stand to add to the elegance of one's cake's display.

Crown this beautiful cake with an elegant tower of ivory and white garden roses.

Classic Colors; the classic bride usually combines a monochromatic pallet of classic and elegant. Colors of champagnes, blushes, creams, light pinks and whites will probably be gorgeous when accented with light greens from the stems of these flowers. These colors are timeless and you may really feel like a classic celebrity on your unique day.

This really is a bridal style that endures all trends and will often be common. Your wedding cake style will also be a style that endures all trends along with the cake is going to be 1 that is remembered for years to come.

The DIVA Bride

You're the Diva Bride. Un-shy, bold and colorful, you'll not go unnoticed. On the day of one's wedding you want your wedding cake to say, look at me just as you need each and every one to look at you. Your wedding cake will incorporate these aspects of you - these aspects that everybody loves you for.

A Cake that Stands Out; envision this white fondant cake which is bursting with a strawberry fruit filling and strawberry red roses. Or possibly, a decadent chocolate icing cake with amazing red sugar roses is leafed in gold. You want a tall cake with six tiers. 1 is that the vendor is going to want a ladder to cut. You need a cake that stands out as significantly as you. From the leading you'll have a lovely topper with red ribbons cascading to the table, all edible needless to say.

Diva Colors; don't be afraid to utilize the red roses, or other bright contrasting colors. As you might be the ultimate diva bride, you are going to have plenty of options in terms of wedding cake colors. Anything that is glam will go for you. If there is certainly any color within your dress, you should certainly use from that the color pallet for your wedding cake. These colors are positive to be noticed at your reception.

Cake inside the Spotlight

If you actually want your cake to obtain as significantly attention as you, think about giving the cake its own grand entrance. Have a rolling cart decorated with organza and thousands of petals. Have your serving set elegantly decorated with ribbons and you may possibly wish to have tiny tea candles surround the cake, your serving set and your champagne glasses to add drama to the moment. Have the lights dimmed and enable the candles to show the elegant and dramatic beauty of you and your wedding cake.

Follow your imagination and you will have a spectacular diva wedding cake style. Never forget this really is your day! Do what you want!
