In this day and age there exists a great need for religious fulfillment. We have been created by Lord for one purpose merely and that is to fellowship along with Him. When God created us This individual put into us an element of His spirit which part of us tries to become one with Him at all times. Whenever we fell from leeway we created a void within ourselves which is trying to be filled. We do all sorts of things in order to fill that useless, alternate spiritualities, other beliefs, the occult and even meals! The soul of each and every human being is trying to go back to its maker but doesn't know how. Just how do the church help to fill this useless?

Society has worsened to such an extent that there is violence and also crime all around us, at each and every turning point we face violence and corruption. The church had been meant to be an important part from the community. In the beginning, if the Roman Catholic Church was so effective that, it was the actual Church that influenced, not only the people but also, the King. Governmental influence is not what are the church should find but it definitely must seek to influence the behaviour of the people.

Creation foremost thing how the church must concentrate on is prayer. Only when the actual members of the cathedral are on their knees can there be any kind of faith based growth. It is only through prayer that any phase can be taken towards influencing society along with filling the emptiness within every individual.

After having prayed pertaining to guidance the chapel must then program its strategies of outreach. The particular church members ought to brainstorm to see how they can best plan his or her programs so that assets and energies aren't wasted.

Another extremely important aspect of fan pages is fellowship. Continuous fellowship must exist in between members of the chapel. We tend to target John 3:16 which speaks of Gods adoration for man but forget about 1 John 3:16 which speaks of reaching out to our fellow human beings. The ten commandments also ask us to love each of our neighbour. Fellowshiping keeps the fireplace burning within us all. We must recognise the need for smaller development teams, especially in large congregations. There should be men's fellowship, women's fellowship, youth fellowship, Sunday college, etc. We must especially develop and boost the youth ministry since they are the 2nd line of leadership which will take over from the present leaders one day. Relating to the youth will also draw them away from the roadways and violence and provides them a better opportunity in life.

The church must develop group programs to make individuals aware of the plentiful life that the church can give through its Christ centered programs. These types of programs also tell the people that they can know peace only throughout God.
